The following comments describe the p terms and provisions generally of this contrac major issues negotiated:

This amendment is written to incorporate work associated with Spares Management.

The Spares Management task had been proposed during 1966 and turned down by the negotiator as a possible duplication of work then under contract. Many subsequent conversations were held on the subject without resolution. The contractor was invited to present his claim (Attach "A") to the Deputy Chief/CMD and, based on the presentation, it was adjudged that the proposal (Attach."B") had some merit and that about 50% of the effort was new scope. Thus, the contractor was offered This was accepted. fee.
